Letter from the President

I Enjoy Our Services

Ever since my sister passed away thirteen years ago I have tried to attend one of our worship services every weekend. I believe that this is one of the best decisions I ever made. Before then I was like most people and only came on the High Holidays, when there was a special service, or for Yahrzeit.

Regardless of who was the Rabbi, Cantor, Clergy Associate or Cantorial Soloist I have enjoyed the services, the music, the warm welcomes and the beauty of the liturgy. The messages in our services have come to us over a period of several thousands of years and we are the lucky recipients of those prayers and messages. This is our history and legacy.

We are blessed with a fantastic Rabbi and a great Cantor. They make the words live through the beauty of their voices and knowledge. The sermons are interesting and relevant. The Cantor also sometimes leads the Adult and Children's Choirs. All our voices rise and meld together.

I have made it my goal to go to as many services as possible. Please introduce yourself to me if we have not met or if I miss introducing myself to you.

Those who attend are sometimes given the honor of participating in the service. They are only honored with saying or doing something with which they are comfortable. Honorees often approach me or another Board member and say thank you, they enjoyed participating. Many are also coming to services now more frequently.

On Saturdays, when the Torah is read, I enjoy following along and listening to the stories. Many of you know that I like to read mysteries; these are the best mystery stories ever written. Every time I hear or read a section I always learn something different.

Each Saturday at 9:15 AM our Clergy lead Torah Study. This is another wonderful opportunity to delve deeper into these lessons and to enjoy discussion.

Come and join those of us who come each week. There is plenty of room, you do not need to make a reservation or buy tickets. And parking is free!

No one can come to every service but try maybe once a month. I do warn you, however, that it may be habit forming. You will always receive a warm welcome. And if you arrive a bit early, you can peruse the many exhibits that make up the Cofeld Museum which grace our hallways.

Temple Beth Zion is your home. You are welcome at any time. I look forward to greeting you in person.

Letter from the Rabbi

Savoring Summer, Strengthening Community

Summer invites us to slow down, to breathe a little deeper, and to reconnect—with nature, with loved ones, and, perhaps, with our Jewish community.

For many Reform Jews, belonging to a synagogue is not just about religious observance—it is about meaning, connection, and growth. Temple Beth Zion offers all of that and more. Whether you are looking for spiritual renewal, lifelong friendships, thoughtful learning, or a deeper sense of purpose, showing up—especially for Shabbat—can be truly transformative.

When we come together, we remind each other that we are not alone. Services offer a moment to unplug from the noise of the world and plug into what matters most. They are a space to sing, to reflect, to be inspired, and to support one another through the ups and downs of life.

This summer, it's easier than ever to be involved:

Want your children or grandchildren to love Sunday school? Learn about TBZ's incredible Religious School where friendship, in-person Hebrew, and meaningful learning are at the center.

Join us for one (or both!) of our fun, casual events:

- Ice Cream Meet and Greet at Garrison Park – Sunday, August 17 from 2–3 PM. Come cool off, enjoy a treat, let the kids play and schmooze with us.
- Open House at the Broder Center – Sunday, August 24 from 12–2 PM. See our space, meet other families, and discover what makes TBZ learning joyful and meaningful.

Want to connect with others who love to learn and laugh?

- Our TBZ Sisterhood invites you to: Book Nook discussing The Boston Girl by Anita Diamant– Thursday, August 14 at 7 PM at the Broder Center, and the Opening Brunch on Sunday, August 10.
- Cantor Susie Lewis-Friedman graciously welcomes you to a Havdalah Pool Party at her home – Saturday, August 16 from 6 to 9 PM. RSVP to receive the address.

End your summer with sweetness and song! Join us for our End-of-Summer Shabbat on Friday, August 22.We'll welcome Shabbat with Chiavetta's BBQ, our awesome temple band and S'mores. Bring your friends, your family, and your summer spirit.

Summer is Jewish life at its best—open, joyful, welcoming, and inspiring. Let's make the most of this season—together. We can't wait to see you.

Rabbi Brent Gutmann

High Holy Days 5785-5786/2025

We look forward to seeing all of you in our spiritual home at 805 Delaware Avenue for High Holy Days. Tickets and information will arrive in the mail. If you have not received your mailing by August 18, or if you have questions, please contact the temple office at (716) 836-6565.

Shabbat of Love & Song

Friday, August 8, 7:15 PM
805 Delaware Avenue

Tu B'Av (the 15th of Av) is known as the Day of Love. Today, modern Israel celebrates it as a day of joy and love: a "Jewish Valentine's Day" if you will.

We will commemorate this holiday with our prayers set to popular songs by Simon and Garfunkel, the Beatles, Peter Yarrow, and others.

Following the service, all are invited to join Cantor Susie at Buffalo Tap House, 85 W. Chippewa, for a "pay your own" schmooze cruise night of community and getting to know one another!

Bagel Brunches

Join us after the Saturday Shabbat Morning Services at 805 Delaware Avenue on August 2 and/or September 6 for a lovely Kiddush nosh, provided by Larry Rubin and Debra Chernoff. Bagels, schmears and schmoozing are a great combination.

Join Sisterhood for a "dutch treat" Bagel Brunch on Sunday, September 14 at 10 AM. Head to Wegmans at 5275 Sheridan Drive, Williamsville, grab a coffee and nosh and head upstairs. This informal gathering is open to all! And when you come, feel free to bring your Dash's Market receipts for the Sisterhood Dash's fundraiser. Thank you!

Amazing Speaker for Opening Brunch

We hope you plan to join us on Sunday, August 10 at Salvatore's for the Sisterhood Opening Brunch. Along with delicious food, a basket raffle, and a 50/50 drawing, we are excited to have a special keynote speaker, Eva Wyner Rosen, Director of Jewish Affairs for Governor Kathy Hochul. We will hear Eva's personal story of her trip to Israel with the governor, what she and the governor are working on, and how they are fighting antisemitism. For the question and answer period, there will be no questions from the floor. All questions must be submitted in advance by Monday, August 4. Email questions to Cindy Stover at thestovers@gmail.com. We will pre-select the questions.

RSVP is required. If you haven't already signed up for the brunch, contact Judy Swadron at (716) 688-1616 no later than August 1st

We also encourage attendees to bring donations for Haven House. Cash, gift cards, and/or checks are gladly accepted for the women and children who need their services.

BLUM JEWISH EDUCATION PROJECT

The Jewish Museum of Buffalo: Cofeld Judaic Museum at Temple Beth Zion has been accepted into Bloomberg Connects, a free arts and culture app developed by Bloomberg Philanthropies. We will be the 16th Jewish Museum internationally to join, out of 1,000 cultural sites around the world including the Met, MOMA, and Notre Dame Cathedral. Our guide will go live on September 8th. This significant inclusion will greatly expand the museum's reach, allowing a global audience to explore our extensive collection of Judaica and the rich history of Temple Beth Zion. We will be the second museum included in Buffalo, following the AKG's launch earlier this Summer.

Bloomberg Connects offers an invaluable platform for cultural institutions, providing a pre-built, user-friendly app interface that can be customized to showcase an organization's unique content. For us, this means visitors, both on-site and remotely, will now have access to expert-curated multimedia content, including audio tours with Ken Rogers about the architecture of TBZ, Nancy Rosenbloom on the Blum Project's workshops, Susan Adelman on the art collection, Rabbi Brent Gutmann on Temple Beth Zion, Cantor Susie Lewis Friedman providing a musical journey through the museum collection using song. We will also have a recording of Paul Dykstra playing our organ. The guide will include images and text, bringing the collection to life with deeper insights and narratives. The Blum Jewish Education Project workshops will also be included in the guide, so the Art and Activism, Symbolism and Immigration workshops can be experienced by visitors.

The benefits of joining Bloomberg Connects are manifold. It significantly enhances accessibility, offering features like screen reader support, zoom, and multilingual options, thereby removing barriers for a wider audience. Furthermore, the app provides a powerful tool for visitor engagement, allowing for personalized experiences and deeper dives into the museum's artifacts and stories. For our Museum, being part of this global network not only elevates its profile but also connects it with a broader community of cultural enthusiasts, fostering greater appreciation for Jewish art, history, and heritage. This partnership marks a new chapter for our museum. The timing also aligns perfectly with the completion of the 805 remodel and relocation of the staff to our Delaware Ave. building.

TEMPLE BETH ZION
Religious School

Chalk Chat & Chesed

The start of school is just around the corner, and I can't wait to hear the joyful voices of our students filling our beautiful new space! We are continuing to prepare and ensure that everything is ready for our first day on September 7.

To kick off the year, Rabbi Brent and I will host an Ice Cream Meet and Greet at Garrison Park (51 Garrison Blvd, Williamsville) on August 17 at 2 PM. Come meet with us and other TBZ Religious School families. We are happy to answer any questions you may have about the new Religious School. While you're at it, enjoy an ice cream or frozen yogurt at Yotality on us!

In addition, we'll be hosting an Open House at the Broder Center on August 24 from noon - 2 PM. This will be a wonderful opportunity to tour our new home, meet me and many of our amazing teachers, and get a preview of the exciting year ahead.

I've received a few questions about Aleph Champ and Mazel Tots, and I'm happy to share that both programs will be part of our Religious School this year.

- Aleph Champ will be the Hebrew curriculum for all grades. Students who complete the Blue Book will transition into the Hineni curriculum, which is prayer-based and marks the beginning of their B-Mitzvah preparation.
- Mazel Tots will continue to meet monthly with Rabbi Brent and Jill Gutmann at the Broder Center. A full schedule will be provided in the coming weeks. If you and your little one would like to attend, please be sure to register online by using the QR code below or by going to: https://bit.ly/TBZRSRegistration25-26.

Lastly, we're inviting students to join the TBZ Youth Choir with the Cantor. As with last year, rehearsals will take place after Religious School, and our young singers will have opportunities to inspire the congregation during services and at events outside of TBZ. Rehearsal dates and times will be shared as soon as they are confirmed.

I'm looking forward to a joyful, meaningful, and musical year ahead!

L'Shalom,
Susan S. Goldberg
