Letter from the President

A Year in Review

It has been a little more than one year since I was elected as President of our Temple. Many changes have occurred in that time.

Our offices are now open for business at 805 Delaware. The Broder Center (former offices) has been converted into class rooms for our ever expanding Religious School, and the Fink Auditorium has been refurbished for many uses.

Over the past year we have enjoyed the Stained Glass Concert series, a retreat in October, numerous thematic Shabbats, celebrating several holidays together, and many programs arranged by the Sisterhood and Brotherhood. The Kol Nidre Campaign went over the top.

Unfortunately, we have lost several fellow congregants and family members, but we've also welcomed many new members. Such is life.

Last August I wrote an article for the Bulletin explaining that "I Enjoy Our Services". That has not changed. I pointed out our wonderful clergy, the music and the camaraderie. Attendance has increased, whether from my article or just word of mouth does not matter. I have enjoyed meeting people I had not met before and look forward to doing so again in the future.

We are also fortunate to have a great staff working with our Temple and our community in providing services. Contact them whenever you have an issue or need assistance.

The theme for the next year is that "Now Is The Time". Now is when you should attend a service, a program, get involved in a committee, express your opinion on Temple matters.

You also have an opportunity to donate financially. The annual dues statements have recently been sent out. While we realize that some of our families find it a challenge to pay what is requested, there are many of us who are blessed to be able to pay more. The Cornerstone Society has existed for several years now and we thank those who have chosen to voluntarily increase their dues as part of that program and those who just donate more than requested. We also recognize those who have committed, through the Life & Legacy program, to include the Temple as part of their estate planning. There are plaques in the main lobby that memorialize these generous actions. Contact me at any time for further information.

Our Temple has a long tradition of diversity and inclusion. Whether you come for worship, holiday

Letter from the Rabbi

Living Between Two Calendars

Most of us live by multiple calendars. There is the calendar of school years, elections, vacations, deadlines, and holidays. Then there is the Hebrew calendar, where we are already approaching the Jewish New Year.

Living between the Hebrew and secular calendars draws attention to the two worlds we inhabit, worlds whose alignment is under strain. For years, many of us took for granted our place within a broad American religious and civic consensus. We did not always agree, but we shared an appreciation of democracy, pluralism, religious freedom, and concern for the vulnerable.

Today, many Jews feel increasingly isolated, politically and intellectually. Some of you tell me you have struggled to maintain relationships. When we weep over isolation and the suspicion others cast on our commitment to Jewish peoplehood, Jewish theology teaches that God weeps with us. The Hebrew month of Elul, beginning at sundown on August 12 and preceding the High Holy Days, offers consolation and reassurance.

The rabbis taught that Elul is an acronym for Ani L'dodi V'dodi Li: "I am my beloved's, and my beloved is mine" (Song of Songs 6:3). Like a king leaving the palace to meet his people in the fields, later Jewish mystics imagined Elul as a month of unusual divine closeness. As we approach the Days of Judgment, God draws near with love and reassurance, helping us find the confidence and purpose to make needed changes.

Our people are asked to make this world a place where God can dwell. That means healing divisions and building relationships within and beyond our community. Elul calls us to listen compassionately while speaking honestly, to exercise patience when dismissing others would be easier, and to extend trust to partners with whom sacred disagreement is possible.

Throughout August, we will look for God in the fields as we move outdoors whenever possible, including a Religious School outing at Greg's U-Pick and our annual End of Summer Shabbat.

Elul reminds you that you are loved. When you are willing to do the work of repair, God meets you there and lends strength. May each of us find the courage this season to come together and help build a world in which God may dwell.

TEMPLE BETH ZION
Religious School

In just a few short weeks, we will begin our second year of Religious School at TBZ.

Our inaugural year of the reimagined Religious School was a tremendous success. We received wonderful feedback from families and, most importantly, the students truly enjoyed their experience. We have spent the summer preparing for another exciting and meaningful year of learning.

Many aspects of our program will remain the same. We will continue using the Chai Curriculum for Judaic Studies and Aleph Champ and Hineni for Hebrew instruction. Our classes will remain blended for students in grades K–5, with separate classes for grades 6 and 7.

We are also excited to introduce a newly created Madrachim Program for students in grades 8–12. Participants will have the opportunity to assist teachers in the classroom while also engaging in meaningful mitzvah projects throughout the year. An orientation for interested teens will be held on August 30 at the Broder Center from 10 a.m. to noon, with a light breakfast provided. If your child is interested in participating, please contact me at education@tbz.org or call (716) 836-6565, ext. 130.

Our theme for the coming year is Shomrim: Guardians of Jewish Values. This theme will be woven throughout our curriculum at age-appropriate levels and incorporated into our Family Day programming. Through this focus, students across all grades will explore Jewish values and discover how they can make a positive impact on their communities at any age.

Once again, we will have a Parent Council; if you are interested in joining this group, please let me know. This dedicated team of parents and TBZ community members has been instrumental in helping us strengthen and improve the school.

Registration for the 2026–2027 school year is now open. You can register at bit.ly/ReligiousSchoolRegistration26-27 or by using the QR code. We are not able to automatically re-enroll students, so all families must complete registration. If you experience any difficulties with online registration, please contact me directly and I will be happy to assist you.

We look forward to welcoming both returning and new families for another outstanding year of learning, community, and Jewish growth at TBZ.

Family Farm Visit

On August 23, we will be taking a trip to Greg's U-Pick Farms. We are finalizing the details, which will be shared via email and Remind in the coming weeks. We hope to enjoy a hayride and spend time learning about the farm and its role in our community.

Choir as Chaverim – Why I am in the Choir

The TBZ Adult Choir is not merely a musical ensemble, it is a mutually supportive, joyful community who come together to beautify our worship services at Temple Beth Zion. Since Cantor Susie Lewis-Friedman arrived at TBZ in the summer of 2024 she has recruited, taught, supported, and celebrated a group of adults of wildly diverse ages and musical ability, forming us into a harmonious ensemble.

She has expanded our musical horizons, while simultaneously honing our skills. She teaches us to listen to one another, and to rely on each other for guidance and support. Her patience with us as we wrestle with difficult music is surpassed only by her enthusiasm as we meet each new challenge she sets for us.

Our joy in participating in the Choir is reflected to the Congregation and back to us as we watch their delight in our song, and listen to their voices joined with our own. Truly we are all becoming chavrim v'shir – friends in song!

The High Holy Days are approaching, and the TBZ Adult Choir invites every member of the Congregation to join in elevating our services with song. No prior experience or special training is needed – just a willingness to sing.

Rehearsals for the High Holy Day services are held every Tuesday in August and early September at 805 Delaware from 7 to 9 PM. If you are interested in learning the music in advance so you can participate more fully in the services, please contact Cantor Susie at 716-836-6565, ext. 137 or cantorsusie@tbz.org, or simply show up for rehearsal.

Letter from the Cantor

With August comes the return of many wonderful things: campers coming home with stories and memories to share, students preparing to head back to school (though thankfully not quite yet here in Buffalo!), and the beginning of our High Holy Day preparations.

We are already hard at work planning meaningful and inspiring services for the High Holy Days. Once again, we are fortunate to welcome the amazing Paul Dykstra as our Musician-in-Residence. We are also delighted to welcome back our friend Garrett Martin from our sister congregation, Westminster Presbyterian Church, who will accompany our choir while Paul conducts.

This year, our choir will once again sing from the side balcony, allowing the beauty of their voices to fill the sanctuary, and giving the congregation a more full experience of their gorgeous music. I am also excited to share that several new singers will be joining me for special duets and ensemble pieces throughout the season.

We are also thrilled to welcome Roman Mekinulov back to our bimah on Kol Nidre and Yom Kippur afternoon. His extraordinary musicianship and soulful playing add a special depth and beauty to these sacred days.

If you have ever considered singing with our choir, I warmly encourage you to join us. Rehearsals are held on Tuesdays at 7 PM and are open to all. Additional rehearsals will be added beginning Thursday, August 20, as we prepare for the High Holy Days.

Finally, I would like to express my heartfelt gratitude to everyone who attended Abigail's B-Mitzvah. Our family was truly kvelling with pride, joy, and love, and your presence helped make the day even more special. The warmth and support of our Temple Beth Zion community were deeply felt and greatly appreciated.

I look forward to seeing you all soon—and please be prepared for a big hug when I do!

Annual Meeting Recap

Thank you to all of you who attended or watched the livestream of this year's 176th Annual General meeting of our Temple.

Marilyn Schillroth and Cindy Stover, co-Presidents of the Sisterhood, kicked the evening off by highlighting some of Sisterhood's programming from this past fiscal year, and then presented a very generous check to the Temple.

I reviewed some of the accomplishments of the year and thanked the Clergy, our staff, the several committees, donors and our congregants who made numerous projects and activities possible.

Our Treasurer, Barry Singer, reported on the fiscal review he headed to arrive at the new realistic budget that has been approved by the Board of Trustees, and reported on our fiscal situation.

Rabbi Gutmann reported on several events over the past year and plans for the future, including programs he had commenced and successfully continued. We thanked him for his efforts.

The Chair of the governance committee, Howard Rosenhoch, presented for a congregational vote a proposed Amendment to the by-laws that would allow the reduction of the number of members of the Board of Trustees to possibly 14. This was approved .

Howard also presented for election as new trustees, Marla Kameny, for a three-year term and Jonathan Schultz, for a one year term. They were unanimously elected to these positions.

I then recognized the four trustees who were leaving the Board, Joni Shatkin, Dave Gordon, Eric Snitzer and Steve Yonaty, and thanked them for their service to our Temple.

Following the Annual meeting, the Board held its first meeting of the year and elected new officers. Board Officers for 2026-27 are as follows: Kenneth Graber, President; Jeff Jolton, First Vice President; Jennifer Field, Vice President; Samantha White, Vice President; Barry Singer, Treasurer; Katherine Ellis, Secretary; Kenneth Polk, Immediate Past President.

Here's wishing much success in 2026-2027. Please feel free to reach out to me at president@tbz.org at any time with questions or comments.

Year in Review

observance, life cycle events, religious school, special events or other reasons, our Temple is your home.

I always note that those who visit our sanctuary for the first time are awed by the two pillars with the Ten Commandments. They stand out as a proclamation of our loyalty to G-d and our commitment to his laws. They are the essence of what it means to be a Jew. Those attending worship services and events in the sanctuary are awed by the majesty of those pillars .

This is our heritage and we all should proudly proclaim such.

Please join with our staff, our clergy and fellow congregants in enjoying all that our Temple has to offer. Please participate in the beauty of our holidays, our worship events and many other activities. This is your Temple and your right. Come and enjoy the many programs and events listed elsewhere in this Bulletin and on our website and in weekly e-blasts.

I hope to hear from you and to see you soon. Thank you.

High Holy Days at TBZ

We look forward to sharing a meaningful and inspiring High Holy Day season with you!

Tickets and information: We anticipate mailing High Holy Days tickets and information toward the end of July. If you have not received your mailing by August 10, or if you have questions, contact the temple office at (716) 836-6565.

Bimah Honors:

The High Holy Days are a special time for our congregation to come together in prayer, reflection, and community. One meaningful way to participate is by accepting a High Holy Day Honor.

Honors provide individuals and families with the opportunity to take an active role in our worship services, whether by opening the Ark, carrying the Torah, reciting prayers, or participating in other important ritual responsibilities. Whether you are a longtime member or newer to our community, we encourage you to take part in this cherished tradition.

Our Ritual Committee will soon begin contacting congregants regarding High Holy Day honors. If you would like to be considered for an honor, please contact Sue Goldberg at schruttberg1@aol.com or Tizzy Schechter at tizzysandy@gmail.com. We will do our best to accommodate requests and match honors with members of all ages and levels of experience.

Kol Nidre Campaign Chairs Announced

We are excited to chair the Kol Nidre Campaign for the coming year. Temple Beth Zion members are known for their generous dedication to the Kol Nidre Campaign and we are honored to be stewards of the 2026 Campaign.

In September, you will receive information and a pledge envelope for the Kol Nidre Campaign, but there is no need to wait. Donations to the Campaign can be made now at bit.ly/KolNidreCampaign.

This Annual Giving Campaign is critical to the mission and membership of Temple Beth Zion. The campaign is as much about participation as it is about the size of donations. Each gift matters! We have made our own 2026 pledges and are personally asking every congregant to make a pledge to the campaign, no matter the size of that pledge.

Please help make a difference in all of our lives and in your Jewish religious and cultural home.

Thank you for your continued (or new) support.
