Letter from the President

Remembering and Looking Ahead

Several years ago, I was asked by some of our Past Presidents if I would serve as our Temple President after my good friend Ken Polk. My response was that it would be a great honor and thank you for the opportunity.

I have been a Temple Beth Zion member for 70 years. While that may not be as long as some, it is longer than others. I can remember Rabbi Fink and Rabbi Goldberg and the old temple building at 599 Delaware. I can remember the plays in the auditorium and when Jackie Robinson spoke at our Men's Club. I can remember the beauty of the building and the large numbers who joined us in worship there, at Kleinhans and at 805 Delaware.

My parents, grandparents, aunts, uncles, cousins and children have all been very involved in temple life and I have tried to follow in their footsteps in my several different roles in the temple.

I can remember the terrible fire that stole our building from us and the hard work by hundreds of our fellow congregants to reestablish our new home. Like Moses and the Israelites, we wandered the Buffalo Jewish community looking for the Promised land.

Above all I can remember the men and women who have served this congregation in numerous capacities and made it a place to be with God. Their efforts made our spiritual home a warm and inviting place. I am privileged to have known them and to enjoy the fruits of their labors.

I hope to join with our present Board members and staff to continue and enhance those feelings. We have some very exciting programs planned that will be announced in the future. Please participate.

We have a great Rabbi and Cantor who work with all of us to celebrate the beauty of our religion.

I want to thank Ken Polk for agreeing to continue his fine work chairing the new Philanthropy committee. He will be joining with several other benefactors to reach our financial goals and to make sure our spiritual home will be there for future generations. Please remember that it takes all of us to keep our temple going, not just a few.

We also look forward to our new members and their families creating new memories. Whether they work on committees or participate in programs, they have already made their mark on our congregation and I look forward to the wonderful things they will accomplish for our benefit.

Please join us as often as you and your family can. This is your home. You are welcome at any time. I look forward to greeting you in person.

Rabbi Brent and Cantor Susie to Lead Shabbat in Chautauqua

Friday, July 18, Saturday, July 19
Chautauqua Institution One Ames Ave., Chautauqua

Come for Torah study and two special Shabbat services at the Hebrew Congregation of Chautauqua: Friday, July 18 at 5 PM at the Miller Bell Tower grounds (or in Smith Wilkes Hall if it rains) followed by a 'Shabbat'zza' Pizza Picnic. Saturday, July 19 Torah Study at 9:30 AM followed by services at 10:30 AM in the Hurlbut Memorial Church. For admittance to the Institute, inform the greeter at the ticket window that you are there to attend the service for the Hebrew Congregation.

Those remaining in Buffalo may join Judy Henn and talented lay leaders at 805 Delaware at the usual times.

Letter from the Rabbi

The Power of Showing Up

What makes a leader? Anybody can be a leader from whatever position they inhabit. Some of the most meaningful leadership I've witnessed here happens behind the scenes—when someone shows up early to help, or puts away chairs after an event, or takes time to help a fellow congregant going through a hard time.

To be a leader means listening more than speaking. Our central prayer, the Shema, which Rabbi Marty Goldberg would introduce as "the watchword of our faith." Its name can be translated as "listen," "hear," or "accept." When we recite Shema, we are also listening and communicating. Jewish ritual law teaches that certain prayers require the presence of more than ten people, a minyan—not ten rabbis, or ten experts, just ten people willing to be present. That's because presence itself matters. Just showing up can make all the difference.

And showing up is not only about physical attendance. It is about focus and attention. It can mean reading an email, responding to a request, joining a committee meeting even when you're tired, or listening with kindness when someone disagrees with you. These everyday actions are not small; they're what hold our community together.

There's a lot happening at TBZ—from major milestones such as our recent 175th Anniversary Gala, to the relaunch of the Temple Beth Zion Religious School, to a transition in our temple Board leadership, to the daily work of keeping our congregation vibrant and strong. Through all of it, one thing remains constant: people keep showing up.

We hope you'll show up as we celebrate America's birthday on Friday the 4th of July, and on Saturday, July 5, join us for Torah Study, services and be present for our Bagel Kiddush. On July 18-19, Cantor Susie and I will lead services at the Chautauqua Institute (Clergy Associate Emerita Judy Henn will lead our Buffalo Minyan). I'll be showing up at the Buffalo Jewish Federation's Summer Celebration on July 21, and our 4th annual Food Truck Shabbat will be held on July 25 at the Broder Center.

If you're wondering whether your presence matters here—it absolutely does. Thank you to our lay leaders and staff for all the ways they are present. Every time we welcome guests and make new friends, whether a family new to Buffalo, an adult seeking a place to convert, a grandchild of current members rediscovering Judaism, or any person wishing to join hands with us, we are helping to realize a partnership worthy of God's presence.

Rabbi Brent Gutmann

Annual Meeting Recap

Thank you to those who attended or watched the livestream of this year's 175th Annual Meeting. Marilyn Schillroth and Cindy Stover kicked things off by highlighting some of Sisterhood's programming from this past fiscal year, and then presented a generous check to the temple. Ken Polk shared his final president's report where he looked back at the past year and thanked many congregants, staff, and clergy. He also noted some short and long-term challenges ahead and wished the new board much success in their endeavors.

On behalf of Larry Rubin, Ken Graber presented a financial report and budget. The need to increase financial support from all congregants was discussed, along with the importance of TBZ managing costs and "right-sizing" to best meet the needs of today's congregants.

As chair of the governance committee, Ken Rogers reviewed the slate of board members which was passed. Congratulations to those returning for a second term, and to Sara Schultz who is joing for a three-year term. It was also announced that the board nominated Eric Snitzer to a one-year term to fill an open position in lieu of having a youth group representative. Finally, Ken Polk thanked outgoing board member Sharon Schwartz for her six years of service to the board.

Following the Annual Meeting, the board held its first meeting of the year and elected new officers. The updated Officer and Board list can be found on page 2 of this issue.

Here's wishing much success in 2025-2026. Please feel free to reach out to Ken Graber at president@tbz.org.

Honorable Menschen

Thank you to volunteers Marilyn Schillroth, Maria Blackburn, Cindy Stover, Sharon Winer, Jody Goldstein and Ken Polk for their assistance in stuffing the Annual Meeting mailing.

Special thanks to Sarah Baird and Ben Kerman for the gorgeous baby grand piano which they donated for our use! Wow, has it ever enhanced our rehearsals and choir

Thank you to the Halpern family for their donation of a beautiful Steinway piano. The donation was made in memory of Ralph and Harriet Halpern

July Office Schedule

The Temple Beth Zion administrative offices will be closed Friday, July 4. Shabbat services will take place as usual. If you have a lifecycle emergency and need to reach a member of our staff, call (716) 836-6565 and follow instructions.

Cantor's Corner

This year, Broadway lost two Jewish Giants: William Finn, and Charles Strouse. Bill Finn was the composer of many amazing musicals such as A New Brain, Falsettos, The 25th Annual Putnam County Spelling Bee and wrote the beautiful song cycle Elegies. This past year at Yizkor I sang a song from Elegies entitled, Anytime: I Am There which was a tribute to his beloved mother. Bill was an active member of Congregation Beit Simchat Torah in Manhattan. I was super honored that he attended my Senior Recital, with his music being sung, and I got to know him. Most recently, we lost Charles Strouse, who gave us Bye Bye Birdie, Applause and perhaps his most famous and beloved musical, Annie. He also gave us a musical rich with Jewish history, Rags. It continues the Fiddler on the Roof story as residents of Anatevka arrived at Ellis Island after their long journey out of Russia. The story of Rags details the horrific working conditions of the Triangle Shirtwaist Factory, and includes in its story and songs the tragedy of the lost Jewish souls who were in the building during the fire. As I was writing my Cantorial Thesis on the Jewish Familial relationships in Rags, I had the great fortune of interviewing Charles Strouse. When I asked him what motivated him to write this music and create this story, he told me of how he was inspired by the Black community, and that they had a musical tapestry which told everyone that this was THEIR music. He said that he wanted to write something which would tell everyone that "this is the music of the Jews."

Adult Choir is going on summer break after our Juneteenth service. We will resume rehearsals on Tuesday, July 29, 7:30 PM in the Broder Center. If you are interested in joining the choir, please contact me!

Pride!

"High Visbility" was the theme for this year's Pride Parade. "Be loud, proud, and stand out in the crowd" was the call and as you can see in the photo, TBZers took the message to heart. It was a great day!

Sisterhood Spotlight

It has finally happened. It has warmed up in Buffalo. After a difficult winter we can now enjoy warmer weather and many events. Sisterhood has been planning events and we would like to share them with you. We hope you will attend them as we would love to have many people participate in our events. In addition to the events included in this issue, join us for:

* Sunday September 14, 10-11:30 AM Bagel Brunch at Wegmans, 5275 Sheridan Drive
* Tuesday November 4, 11:30 AM - 4 PM Kaaren Norman Games Galore Card Party
* Sunday December 7, noon Family Chanukah Party at the Broder Center

We are also planning a Forest Lawn Trolley Tour - watch your Bulletins and emails for details.

Please mark your calendars now so that you don't miss out. A special shout out to all the gardeners out there. Our time has finally come. Both of us love to garden so take advantage of this warmer weather. Wishing you and your families a wonderful summer season.

TEMPLE BETH ZION
Religious School

A New Chapter Begins

Hello from Religious School Central! We continue to work hard on preparing for our new school to open in September. Online registration is open until early August and we expect to have a vibrant, exciting school for our families. We are in the process of properly staffing the re-imaged school and, while we have hired some great educators, we are still in need of some teaching staff and madrachim. If you, your children or grandchildren are interested in being part of this new initiative, please contact me to set up a time when we can discuss how you can assist us.

We have received some questions regarding payment plans for the upcoming school year and we do have options available:

* Pay in full when you register
* Pay in 2 equal payments – the first in September and second in January
* Pay in 10 monthly installments beginning in September and ending in June

If you need a payment plan, please contact me at education@tbz.com or 716-836-6565 ext. 130 and I can take care of it for you.

We are excited to announce two new Committees associated with Religious School. We will have a Parent Engagement Committee led by Ross Friedman. The committee will be encouraging parents to get to know one another and to also get involved with the school. New for this year, parents will have a place to schmooze complete with coffee and light snacks.

Our second Committee will be led by Rachel Couch and will be reviewing how the school is performing. This group will be looking at our curriculum, teachers and my performance. We expect that this team will review our existing Teacher and Director evaluation forms, meet with me directly on a monthly basis to provide feedback and aid in ensuring that our students are engaged, learning and growing their love of Judaism.

Thank you to those who generously donated to the TBZ Religious School during the "paddle raise" at the 175th Anniversary Gala: Amy DeLury, Irv & Donna Levy, Julie & Ed Feldman, Christina Akers-DiCenzo & Salvatore DiCenzo, Kathy Ellis, Michael Cozzarin, Samantha & Byron White, Sharon & Edward Schwartz, Larry Rubin & Debra Chernoff, Sara & Steve Schultz, David Goldberg, Ellen Rich & Eric Snitzer, Ken & Cara Polk, Judy & Howard Abromowitz, and Drucy Borowitz & Phil Glick. Your contributions will allow us to ensure that our new class space has all the equipment that will be necessary for our success. If you were not able to attend the Gala but would like to make a donation to Religious School, go to https://tbzbuffalo.shulcloud.com/payment.php and select "Religious School donation".

As always, my door is always open and I would love to hear from you with any suggestions you may have, or if you want to be involved in the school. We would welcome input from those the school will be serving.

Reminder: Registration is online this year; you can use the QR code or go to https://tbzbuffalo.shulcloud.com/form/TBZRSRegistration25-26. If you have an issue or are unable to complete an online registration, contact me for assistance.

B'Shalom,
Susan S. Goldberg

Mazel Tots Outdoors

Mazel Tots had a blast at Billy Wilson Park. It was hard to tell who had more fun - the kids or the grown-ups.

Mazel Tots will restart in September. Watch your Bulletins and emails for details.

COFELD JUDAIC MUSEUM

Cofeld Corner

A key goal of the Cofeld Judaic Museum, through its exhibitions, displays and events, is the desire to showcase the breadth of diaspora and Israeli Jewish cultures, the varied history of Jewish lives and practices, and the lived experience of Temple Beth Zion through the ages, with a significant focus on the architecture, art, religious and cultural history of our synagogue and its place in the world.

While many of the sources for this aim come from within the significant museum and museum archives holdings, and the building itself, there are substantive materials about Temple Beth Zion and its history and design in other archives and museums that can be accessed with a personal visit and sometimes a "click" online.

In creating the core exhibition at the Cofeld Judaic Museum, we had the opportunity to illustrate some of this range from within our own local community, around the United States and online. Interest in the synagogue and its history of change over time, and that intersection with other Jewish and non-Jewish communities, artists, designers, civic members and more, illustrates that the story of Temple Beth Zion cannot be told exclusively by our own records, and is even richer when we include as wide a range of sources as possible.

From articles about Dutch Jewry and their Temple Beth Zion connection, to images of Temple Beth Zion across the ages, to Ben Shahn writing about designing the sanctuary window to John Laping's history of the building of the sanctuary at 805 Delaware Avenue, the range of materials outside "our walls" is fascinating. Archival materials are available here in Buffalo, or in other repositories around the country from Washington, DC to Cincinnati. Some of them have been used in published form in a book, an article or an encyclopedia entry and some of them can be visited in person or online. Our new section on the website makes this information available, so that it can be explored by everyone in their preferred way.

To start discovering, check the Cofeld website tab at "Links to Explore" or use this direct address: https://cofeldmuseum.org/about/linkstoexplore/.

This page will be updated intermittently and if you have discovered a resource, a book or an article yet to be listed, please send this information to me at museum@tbz.org, so we can share it with all.

Dr. Chana Revell Kotzin, Ph.D.

Interfaith East Side Garden Walk Tour

Buffalo Jewish Federation and Temple Beth Zion are excited to partner with several local religious groups for the 4th interfaith tour of Buffalo's East Side Garden Walk (ESGW) Sunday, July 20 from Noon to 4 PM.

Social Action Chair Samantha White is Co-Chair of the ESGW. Ellen Goldstein will be guiding the tour, which will begin at the Tops Market at 1275 Jefferson Avenue, site of the horrific racist shooting in May 2022 which prompted the creation of an interfaith tour for the East Side Garden Walk. Unlike in past years, participants will then travel in their own carpools to several specific East Side gardens, complete with speakers at each site, including guide Ellen Goldstein. This is not a bus tour.

Registration is required for this free event in order to tour with the Federation group. Register at bit.ly/gardenwalk25 to receive our list of gardens we will tour as well as other suggested drop by gardens when we gather at noon on July 20th at the Jefferson Avenue Tops.

For questions, please contact Rachel Beerman at rachel@buffalojewishfederation.org or Ellen Goldstein at goldsteinellen4@gmail.com. More information on the East Side Garden Walk and Buffalo Garden Walk can be found at gardensbuffaloniagara.com.
