Letter from the President

Looking Back, Looking Forward

As I reflect on my three-year term as president of TBZ, I know that while we have much to be thankful for, I also know that we have more work to do. As we move our administrative headquarters downtown, open our gift shop, re-start our Religious School, continue our programming and ways to engage our members, we also must focus on ways to increase monetary contributions to TBZ. Through programs like the Life & Legacy program, the Cornerstone Society, or our Capital Campaign, there are many different ways to pledge your support to the long-term health of our synagogue. Additionally, increasing your annual dues, even a small amount, goes a long way to benefiting our financial health.

As past-president, I will take on a leadership role as Philanthropy Chair. I look forward to working with members to connect their passion in meaningful ways that will support both TBZ's short-term and long-term goals. Also, in partnership with the Foundation for Jewish Philanthropies, we can identify strategic giving initiatives that maximize your gifts.

I have truly been honored and grateful for the opportunity to serve. I have learned so much over this time about myself, about others, and about our beloved synagogue. I have also met so many wonderful people - staff, volunteers, congregants, and community members - and it has been a tremendously rewarding experience. I'd like to thank the past presidents for their vote of confidence in me, the board, clergy, and executive director with whom I have worked so closely over these past few years, and, of course, my wife and my family.

I'm confident that my successor, Ken Graber, will do a phenomenal job leading us. Ken has played a role in almost every part of congregational life and is well equipped to lead us forward. Thank you for being a part of this journey and may the new fiscal year ahead be even more successful than the past.

Letter from the Rabbi

Celebrating 175 Years

Noted prominently in the new Cofeld Museum 175th Anniversary exhibit is the date, December 6, 1850, when eleven Dutch and German Jewish families in Buffalo broke away from Buffalo's first synagogue to pursue their particular vision that would become Temple Beth Zion. While we continue our approach to our exact Anniversary, last month we celebrated this significant milestone.

Thank you to every leader and staff member who helped with last month's awesome party! Reaching 175 years is a remarkable achievement for any congregation. Thank you for all the memorable smiles, words and dances of adulation for our temple and all it has meant to you in your lives. May we in this moment re-energize ourselves for the tasks which remain.

Too often, we move quickly from one challenge to the next, always focused on what must still be done. And yes, there is still work to do—as we continue "right-sizing" our organization to meet the current spiritual needs of our community, as we improve our spaces to open new opportunities to deepen relationships, and as we lead the way forward with Torah to make a sacred impact on our world. But we must also allow ourselves moments of appreciation. We must admire all we have accomplished.

From achievements such as the first Jewish Boy Scouts Troop, to Temple Sisterhood's Daughters of the Star's creation of the Zion House "settlement house" for Eastern European Jewish immigrants; from noted partnerships with Jewish and non-Jewish religious and non-religious organizations in Western New York, to opening our doors for workshops and educational opportunities through the Cofeld Museum and Blum Jewish Education Project in more recent years, our temple is an inspiration. I am grateful to celebrate this milestone with you, and to contribute to the next chapter of our history.

There is yet more to celebrate! On Friday, June 20 we celebrate those who made a Life & Legacy pledge to Temple Beth Zion as we bless our temple's new Board. And, on June 6 we will celebrate 50 years of women in the Cantorate with our member, Cantor Barbara Ostfeld, the first female Cantor!

Each generation inherits the dreams of the past and the responsibility to carry them forward. To do so is nothing short of holy. Our work is never complete, but we honor the generations past and future as we keep our sacred chain of tradition alive.

Rabbi Brent Gutmann

Buffalo Pride Parade

Sunday, June 1

Buffalo's Pride Parade steps off at Elmwood & Forest on Sunday, June 1 at 11 AM, marching up Elmwood to Allen. Watch for more news about a Jewish parade contingent being organized by the JCC that you can join!

If you prefer to cheer from the sidelines, gather in front of Congregation Beth Abraham, 1073 Elmwood, to boost the marchers.

This year's Parade theme is HIGH VISIBILITY. "Represent yourself to the community and show off your solidarity! Be seen in can't-miss colors, flashy fashions, and a point of view that refuses to be ignored. Be loud, proud, and stand out in the crowd."

As you can see from the photo taken last year, it's an amazing event. Join us!

Bimah Honors

Your TBZ family would be delighted to celebrate your birthday, a simcha, or to honor the memory of a loved one on their Yahrzeit, by calling you to the Bimah for one of the honors at an upcoming Shabbat service on either a Friday night or Saturday morning. If you are interested in lighting the candles, opening the ark, leading the Kiddush and Motzi, undressing and dressing the Torah, an Aliyah for the Torah Blessings, or one of the other opportunities to take part in a service to celebrate your important day, please contact Sue Goldberg at schruttberg1@aol.com or (716) 867-6012.

We would also love to have you join the Ritual Committee. If you are interested, please contact Sue Goldberg or Kathy Ellis at ellis-donner@ecc.edu.

Juneteenth Shabbat

Friday, June 13, at 7:15 PM

Join us for a powerful and uplifting Juneteenth Shabbat on Friday, June 13 at 805 Delaware Avenue. This special evening will honor the spirit of Juneteenth through reflection, music, and community as we gather to build deeper connections between the Jewish and African American communities.

The service will feature a dynamic panel discussion exploring shared histories, struggles, and hopes for justice and liberation. Voices from both communities will speak to the importance of solidarity, memory, and mutual support in our collective pursuit of freedom and dignity.

In a moving musical collaboration, the TBZ choir will be joined by a local gospel choir to fill the sanctuary with powerful harmonies and soul-stirring song. This blending of traditions is a celebration of resilience, faith, and joy—core elements of both Jewish and African American cultural and spiritual life.

Following the service, we invite you to an enhanced oneg where we can continue the conversation, share food, and deepen relationships. Juneteenth Shabbat at TBZ is more than a commemoration—it is an invitation to come together in partnership, honor our diverse heritages, and envision a more just future.

Whether you are a longtime member of TBZ, a member of the broader Buffalo community, or new to either tradition, we welcome you with open arms and open hearts. Come be part of this special evening of unity, remembrance, and celebration.

Sam White, Esq.
Social Action Committee Chair

Thank you Beth Steinberg

Thank you to Beth Steinberg, who concluded working at Temple Beth Zion on May 9 with five years of service. After years teaching at Kadimah Acadamy and in the Temple Beth Zion Religious School, Beth was hired onto our staff as Religious School Director in 2019. Her affection and creativity were treasured, especially during the COVID pandemic. In 2022, she shifted into a new role as Director of Member Engagement & Programming, learned new skills, and contributed to Mazel Tots, Young Family Services, Aleph Champ, and more. She is someone dedicated to lifelong learning, including her own, as she has participated regularly in iEngage and Torah Study. Mazel tov as well to Beth on her daughter's wedding on May 17th. We wish Beth all the best and are deeply grateful for the heart, joy, and dedication she brought to our community.

Aleph Champ Medal Ceremony

Our Aleph Champ students have been making big strides and achieving success in learning to read Hebrew. These pictures are from our last medal ceremony where we celebrated their success with a colored medal for each level completed. Their hard work and determination are inspiring. Cheers to all!

Teen Time

Our teens had the opportunity to participate in Minute to Win It Games to encourage teamwork and some healthy competition. They were challenged with both Oreos and Cup stacking. We loved seeing them interact with their peers, building their self-esteem and having some plain old fun at the same time.

Torah Donation

Rabbi Ellen Franke of Temple Beth El, Niagara Falls, donated this historic Torah to TBZ's Cofeld Museum. The beautiful Torah was immediately put on display - we hope you saw it during the 175th Anniversary weekend.
