Letter from the President

Shavuos

Shavuos, or Shavuot, is celebrated this year on May 21-22. It celebrates both the completion of the Counting of the Omer (the seven week period between Passover and Shavuos) and, more importantly, our receipt of the Torah from G-d on Mount Sinai.

On Shavuos, it is customary to stay up all night and learn Torah, eat special foods, and read the Book of Ruth and the Ten Commandments.

The giving of the Torah is what makes us Jews. It is the connection between us and G-d, down through the millennia, that makes us G-d's people and makes G-d our ruler.

In these days when we are attacked from so many sides for our religion, for our loyalty to Israel, and for our history, it is very important to remember who we are and what we stand for proudly.

Those who visit our sanctuary for the first time are often awed by the two great pillars with the Ten Commandments. They are a glorious proclamation of our loyalty to G-d and our commitment to G-d's laws. They represent the essence of what it means to be a Jew. Those attending worship services and events in our sanctuary are struck by the majesty of those pillars and what they mean—a symbol of the love our G-d has shown to us.

This is our heritage. We should be proud to proclaim that.

The refurbishment of 805 Delaware is nearing completion. The new foyer, the Board Room, and the other improvements are beautiful and useful. Please come to see what has been accomplished. We owe a big debt of gratitude to those whose donations and work have made these things possible.

Our congregation and the community are invited to the next Stained Glass Concert in the sanctuary on May 17 at 3 PM. Not only will it celebrate Jewish music, it will also resound with the joy of baseball. Our temple is always enhanced by these concerts and those who come and enjoy them. We are fortunate to have this great facility and the people who know how to use it as a showcase.

Please join our staff, our clergy and your fellow congregants in celebrating our holidays, worshiping together, and sharing so many other activities offered here. This is your temple. Please come and explore the programs and events listed in this Bulletin and weekly e-blasts, and on our website.

I hope to hear from you and to see you soon. Thank you.

Letter from the Rabbi

Counting the Days

I haven't shaved in weeks—not to make a fashion statement. It's a tradition that goes along with this period of the Hebrew calendar called the Omer, the days we count between the festivals of Passover and Shavuot. I'll shave again on Lag BaOmer, but what I didn't expect were the compliments. Apparently, this is a look people like, but my wife has…a different opinion.

But this season has even deeper resonances. Counting each day is a way to build toward something larger – it's an opportunity to redefine our behaviors and liberate ourselves from corrosive habits while committing to healthy ones. Passover is about freedom, and Shavuot is about devoting ourselves to something larger than ourselves–it celebrates our receiving the Torah. And it comes with Yizkor, reminding us that even as we celebrate what we've received, we also remember those we've lost. It's a meaningful time of year.

You can see TBZ is staying busy through this period as well. On May 2, our Religious School will gather in the sanctuary—a chance to see our community's future right in front of us. Sisterhood Shabbat is coming soon, too, on May 8, bringing friendships and enthusiasm to our bimah. And on May 15, our "Adventure Begins Here" Family Service will connect to the beginning of the Book of Numbers—chronicling our ancestors' wanderings. Then on May 29, we'll celebrate Pride Shabbat and honor Carol Speser with a lifetime achievement award for her leadership, especially in strengthening and uplifting the LGBTQ+ community.

There's a lot to think about beyond the strong opinions brought about by facial hair. I'll get to the end of the Omer and shave. That part is easy. The more important question is what we've done with the days along the way. I hope you'll be part of it.

Bringing Spirituality into Your Home

It is hard to believe that the Religious School year is coming to an end. The year has flown by, and I will truly miss the joy and laughter I heard each Sunday morning as we began our day together with the Cantor and the Rabbi. Throughout this year, our students have explored the importance of living a life rooted in the traditions and spirituality of Judaism.

There are many meaningful ways to continue these traditions at home. Recently, many of us either hosted or attended a Passover Seder—this ritual that has been passed down for thousands of years. Do you have a mezuzah on your door? If so, you are living the words of the V'ahavta. When you look around your home, do you see Shabbat candlesticks, kiddush cups, or books by Jewish authors? These everyday items quietly connect us to our heritage and values.

The kitchen is often where many of us most strongly connect with our Judaism. Some of my happiest memories are of both of my grandmothers preparing special foods for festive meals. Even today, the smells of challah baking, chicken soup simmering, or potatoes being grated for latkes instantly take me back. I have carried these traditions into my own home and find great joy in preparing holiday meals for friends and family.

As your children prepare for their B-Mitzvah—another sacred tradition passed on l'dor vador—they may stand on the same bimah where you once stood at age 13. We hope you will continue to find ways to honor and carry forward the beautiful rituals and ceremonies that are so deeply embedded in our religion.

Wishing you all a wonderful summer. Please keep an eye out for information about programs that will take place while school is not in session. More details will be shared as dates are finalized.

Parking at TBZ for the Allentown Art Festival

The annual Allentown Art Festival is coming in June and Temple Beth Zion's lot will be available for parking on Sunday, June 14 ($10 per car). We need volunteers to staff the parking lot and direct traffic. It's a fun fundraiser! You don't have to come all day - just sign up for a shift or even part of a shift.

Sunday, June 14
Shift I: 10:30 AM – 12:30 PM
Shift II: 12:30 – 2:30 PM

If you would like to sign up for a shift and assist this year, please contact Warren Clark at wec@wareclark.com or Julie at (716) 836-6565, ext. 134.

If you attend the festival, plan to park at TBZ. We're in a great spot, convenient to the festival.

Life & Legacy
ASSURE JEWISH TOMORROWS

What is Life & Legacy?

Life & Legacy™ is a partnership with the Harold Grinspoon Foundation that promotes after-lifetime giving to benefit Jewish synagogues and organizations. Legacy giving will strengthen our Buffalo Jewish community for years to come. It ensures that you will be remembered by those who directly benefit from your generosity, as well as those who will be inspired by your example for future generations. A gift ensures that your vision and generosity will impact lives long after your lifetime. Your legacy gift becomes a permanent extension of your values and vision by perpetuating those organizations, synagogues and/or programs that you recognize are important to the Buffalo Jewish Community.

Gifts can be made by changing your will, life insurance policy, or retirement beneficiary. The program is open to all as gifts of all sizes matter. To date, TBZ has over 50 donors with an approximate value of $2.5M. To learn more about the program, visit https://jewishphilanthropies.org/life-and-legacy/ or contact TBZ Life & Legacy chair Ken Polk at kenp@tbz.org.

Leadership Roles

The Governance Committee is encouraging all TBZ members in good standing to consider leadership roles for the 2026-27 year. We are looking for potential new board members and committee members/chairs. We want to make sure that anyone who is interested is given the opportunity to submit their name for consideration. It is the Governance Committee's charge to match interested individuals to our current and projected needs. If you have a particular interest or experience, please let us know.

Please email inquiries to me at hrosenhoch@gmail.com.

tbz Sisterhood

Circle of Sisters

Temple Beth Zion Sisterhood is more than a membership—it's a living legacy of women supporting one another, strengthening our congregation, and repairing the world through tikkun olam. For generations, TBZ Sisterhood has been a place where friendships are formed, leadership is nurtured, and meaningful impact begins right here in our community.

Today, we are proud to be 164 members strong—women of all ages and stages of life who come together with shared purpose. From organizing engaging programs and holiday events, to supporting Temple Beth Zion in ways both visible and behind the scenes, Sisterhood continues to be a vital force within our synagogue. Whether it's through community service initiatives, educational opportunities, or simply showing up for one another, the heart of Sisterhood is connection.

But like any vibrant community, we grow stronger with each new voice, each new idea, each new relationship. If you've ever thought about getting more involved, building deeper connections, or giving back in a meaningful way, Sisterhood is the place for you. There is no single way to participate—your presence, your perspective, and your energy are what matter most.

If you are already a member, we invite you to renew your commitment—we are grateful to be in your circle of sisters. If you're a past member, or new to Sisterhood, we warmly welcome you to become an active member—our circle of sisters isn't quite complete without you.

Sisterhood to Honor Cindy Stover at Sisterhood Shabbat

Friday, May 8, at 7:15 PM
805 Delaware Avenue and via livestream

The Sisterhood of Temple Beth Zion invites the community to attend our annual Sisterhood Shabbat Service on Friday, May 8, at 7:15 pm in the Sisterhood Chapel at 805 Delaware Avenue. During the service, Cindy Stover will be honored as the Nancy J. Borins Woman of the Year and our newest board members will be installed.

Cindy was born and raised in Buffalo. She graduated from Williamsville South High School and the University of Buffalo with a degree in Business Management. She is married to Rick, a Senior Director at an IT company. They are the proud parents of two adult children, a daughter living in Washington DC, working for the federal government, and a son living in Amherst, working in hospitality management.

Her family has been members of Temple Beth Zion for over 20 years. Cindy joined the Sisterhood many years ago, and became more active as her children grew up. She is proud to follow in the footsteps of her parents, who were heavily involved at Temple Shaarey Zedek. Cindy is happy to be part of the Sisterhood Board as co-president, and proud to accept the Nancy J. Borins Woman of the Year award!

Please join us when Cindy receives this prestigious award. A special Oneg sponsored by Sisterhood will follow the service.

Caring for Sisterhood Members

If you know of a Sisterhood member who is ill or has had surgery, an accident, or a death in her family, please take a moment to notify our Corresponding Secretary, Susan Ward Nadler by calling her at (716) 689-4682 or sending her an email at shoshana37@yahoo.com so she can send a note on behalf of Sisterhood.

Letter from the Cantor

Music Makes Community

Shared experiences of art are essential to human connection, now more than ever. When the Music Committee first gathered just over a year ago, we were united in a clear mission: to bring people together from across our community through the unique power of music. Framed by the majesty of our stained glass, artists offer their God-given gifts in a sacred space, creating moments of love, healing, and belonging.

This year, we have truly lived that vision. On March 29, more than 420 people from across the Buffalo community filled our sanctuary to experience a deeply moving musical program by one of our Jewish community's centenarians. It was nothing short of magical.

They say it takes a village and our recent Stained Glass Series concerts prove just that. Thanks to the extraordinary leadership of co-chairs Rebecca Bernstein and Anna Marie Richmond, along with the dedication of our committee, Ryan Bonetto, Heather Schultz, Milo Smith, Rob Rothkopf, Joan Alexander and Media liason Ellen Goldstein, what once seemed like the challenge of the century became reality: a sanctuary filled with people seeking connection through music, tradition, and community.

We are equally grateful to Julie Feldman for her tireless support, and to Larry Scheur, whose devotion brings him from Florida to ensure our sanctuary's pristine sound.

Join us for our final concert of the season on May 17, 2026 at 3 PM: the Sweet Singers of Buffalo present songs by Jewish composers celebrating baseball. Expect hot dogs, cotton candy, and fun for the whole family. As always, tickets are "pay what you wish" and available on Eventbrite.

I feel incredibly fortunate to work alongside such dedicated partners in this sacred work. None of this would be possible without them.
