Letter from the President

Happy Birthday America

This month we gladly celebrate the Two Hundred and Fiftieth Birthday of our great country.

July 4, 1776 saw the approval of the Declaration of Independence and the assertion of the principles contained in that honored document. All Americans, and the world, are celebrating that august event.

As Jews we can particularly appreciate those principles, and what it means to have a home where freedom exists and is cherished. Where our children can be proud of their heritage and we can freely learn from other cultures. Where we can worship as we want together with our families, our friends and our fellow congregants.

We remember the thousands of Jews who came to this country and were instrumental in its creation. They laid a foundation that has blossomed into the America of today. Our ancestors fought for these freedoms, in many different ways, and we still remember their bravery. Regardless of anyone's political views, we agree that this is the greatest country in the world and merits commemoration, and our esteem and loyalty.

Along these same lines, our Temple has a long tradition of diversity and inclusion. This complements our own culture and celebrations. Whether you come for worship, holiday observance, religious school, special events or other reasons, our Temple is your home.

The freedoms we enjoy allow us to have this home, now, today and, I hope, for the future.

Every month I write about events happening at our Temple, whether religious or social. Many congregants tell me that they enjoy reading the articles. I know people see them and read them, but not enough members respond by attending.

In these days when we are besieged from many sides for our religion, our loyalty to Israel and our history, it is very important to remember who we are and for what we proudly stand. We are Jews and we are Americans.

I always note that those who visit our sanctuary for the first time are awed by the two great pillars with the Ten Commandments. They stand out as a proclamation of our loyalty to G-d and our commitment to following his laws. They are the essence of what it means to be a Jew. Those attending worship services and events in the sanctuary are enveloped in the majesty of those pillars. Alongside the Letter from the Rabbi

Celebrate Summer with Shabbat Under the Open Sky

This month, the United States marks 250 years since the Declaration of Independence. Throughout our history here, Jews have played an outsized role in defining what makes us proud of America. From financing the Revolution to helping define freedom of religion, our people have been part of the American story from the beginning. Generations of American Jews have served, built, created, taught, healed, advocated, and strengthened this country. Here we gained freedoms our ancestors rarely knew. That is a relationship worth celebrating.

We are leaning into summer fun at TBZ as we take our Friday night services outdoors, weather permitting. On Friday, July 3, Stars and Stripes Shabbat at 7:15 pm will offer prayers built on Classic Rock in the courtyard of 805 Delaware Avenue. Later in the month, on Friday, July 24, we will enjoy our annual Food Truck Shabbat at the Broder Center, beginning with Anderson's Food Truck at 6 pm and continuing with services under the stars at 7:15 pm.

These summer Shabbat evenings celebrate what makes us uniquely Jewish and American. So much of our strength has depended on the institutions and communities we have built, and the relationships we have created. We can see it both in how we have become American and in how we have helped shape America.

Our prayers also express our shared purpose as well as our uniqueness. We emphasize freedom, justice, and opportunities to flourish. We draw strength from memory without allowing memory alone to define us. In America, our people have found a place within a shared story while still bringing our voice to it.

Help us grow our community. Tell your neighbor, your colleague, another family, someone new to Buffalo, or a person you have not seen for a while, and ask them to celebrate Shabbat with us. Invite them because we share a story.

Jewish tradition has emphasized hospitality since Abraham and Sarah welcomed strangers into their tent. The prophet Isaiah declares, "My house shall be called a house of prayer for all peoples" (Isaiah 56:7). A community's richness may be measured by its openness and by the breadth of those devoted to it.

TEMPLE BETH ZION
Religious School

Life is a Journey

As we read the Torah this July, our ancestors continue their journey toward the Land of Milk and Honey. Along the way, they encounter trials and tribulations—both as a community and as individuals—making 42 stops through the wilderness.

Each of us, too, travels many journeys throughout our lives. These experiences invite us to reflect on the stages we've passed through and the blessings we've received along the way. As we grow and gain new awareness, we begin to see how even difficult moments can become meaningful experiences—ones that strengthen us and help us face future challenges with resilience and confidence.

Our own journey in the Religious School this year has been filled with lessons and blessings. We were fortunate to be given space at the Broder Center when our offices moved to 805 Delaware, which we thoughtfully reconfigured into a warm and welcoming school for our students. We successfully adapted a curriculum from years past to meet the needs of most grade levels.

Our 7th graders embarked on a meaningful spiritual journey, exploring their personal connections to Judaism and how to integrate these values into their daily lives. Our B-Mitzvah students rose to the occasion as well—learning to lead services, mastering their Torah portions and, in many cases, exceed even their own expectations.

As we look ahead, our journey enters its next phase—guided by what we've learned and inspired by the possibilities that lie before us. We are excited to continue building a vibrant and engaging school community for all our families.

If you know someone seeking a spiritual home or a dynamic learning environment for their children, we warmly invite you to bring them to one of our summer experiences. We have several outdoor services planned for July and August—after all, who doesn't love to pray outside? Let us know if you bring a friend—we'll have some TBZ swag for them to take home! Be sure to introduce them to our clergy, board members, and membership committee.

Finally, we are continuing the search for a new Religious School Coordinator as I begin to reduce my role. If you know someone who may be interested, please let me know—we would be happy to share the job description and discuss the opportunity.

L'Shalom,
Susan Goldberg, Interim Religious School Director

Letter from the Cantor

It has been a great year for music making at Temple Beth Zion. I write this to you from Chicago, where I have been asked to sing in the 30th Anniversary Concert of Chicago's Leading Jewish Community Choir, Kol Zimrah Jewish Community Singers.

One of my friends in the choir was raving about the quality of musical programming that TBZ was generating, that is even visible online. During my time in Chicagoland, I formed a deep relationship with this choir and its members, many of whom were members of my own Temple Choirs.

Purim is just around the corner, literally. Time to audition! Our Adult Shpiel this year is A Disney Purim with the Purim story set to songs from our beloved Disney canon! Auditions will take place on Tues. July 14 at 7 PM. If you're interested, please email me for location. No singing, acting, dancing or any experience necessary at all. The only requirement is to come with an open heart and a desire to have FUN! and LAUGH!

On Tuesday, November 10, Kol Zimrah, along with the Temple Choirs from Holy Blossom as well as Westminster Choir and many of our interfaith partners will present a Kristellnacht Commemoration Concert. It will take place in our glorious sanctuary at 7 PM, and we will be joined by several talented cantors. Please mark your calendars, and plan to join us.

It is truly an honor to be your Cantor. I continue each day to be in awe of the amazing professional and lay leadership of this Temple, their kindness, caring, and all that they are doing to make us thrive!

Casino Night FUN!

TBZ members and friends, dressed up in black and red, got together for a great fundraising event in June. The Fantasy Casino Night included delicious food and libations from The Grange, a silent auction and casino games. It was a fun chance to try new games with no real gambling. While "winning" wasn't the goal, a special raffle was held for those with chips remaining at the end of the night.

Kudos to Ken, Cara and Leah Polk for making arrangements, decorating the Rabbi Fink Auditorium in style, and being great ambassadors for the event. Additional help came from Judy Sperry, Sam and Joni Shatkin, Jennifer Field, Julie Feldman, Sue Goldberg, Sue Stone, Ivy Jolton, Yves Thepault and Ruby Merritt.

A big thank you to all those who attended and/or supported the event. Our sponsors included: Club Table: Aesthetic Associates Centre & Tres Aurae Spa, Buffalo Jewish Federation, Choice Employee Benefits & Susan Goldberg, Foundation for Jewish Philanthropies, Adrianne & Ken Graber, M&T Bank, Jody Goldstein & Howard Rosenhoch, TBZ Sisterhood, Ace: Warren & Lynn Clark, Delta Sonic, Phil Glick & Drucy Borowitz, Marla Kameny & Daniel Sage, Larry Rubin & Debra Chernoff, King: Amherst Memorial Chapel, Brian & Margery Block, David & Janet Desmon, Jeff Jolton & Marcy Wood, Hildreth Electric, Queen: Ed & Julie Feldman, Hover Networks, Inc., Art & Wendee Lorbeer, Premier Wine & Spirits, Sam & Byron White, Jack: Michael Adler & Evelyn Walsh, Computernetworkz.biz, Carol Cromwell, John Heffron & Susan Grelick, Mesnekoff Funeral Home, Carri & Phil Milch, Jennifer Patrick & Terry Waud, Ken & Cara Polk, Joan Taulbee, Sharon Townsend.

Shabbat Under the Open Sky

Shared meals, familiar melodies, people laughing and opening their hearts to one another: these are the moments in which relationships deepen. We may be drawn by the music or the food truck, but the evening becomes meaningful through those with whom we share it. It becomes meaningful when we feel that we belong and that our presence is cherished.

This summer, come enjoy TBZ with someone you enjoy. Share what makes TBZ special to you, and let us make this a summer of growth, strength, and joy, together under the same stars.
