Letter from the President

Come Celebrate Presidents Day

Most of us can remember when we separately celebrated Lincoln's and Washington's birthdays each February. Somewhere along the line the celebrations were merged into Presidents Day.

Join me at temple on Friday, February 13 for our 7:15 PM Classical Shabbat service. We will remember our past Presidents of blessed memory, and also honor the past Presidents who are a valued source of support. We will celebrate all of their hard work and great achievements. For the 175 years of our Temple's existence, we can point to our Presidents with gratitude and pride for the beautiful buildings we have had, the great clergy we have been blessed with, and the staff that has made us function. These achievements were possible only due to the hard work, vision and generosity of our Presidents.

They all had difficult decisions to make dealing with finance, construction, personnel, education, legal issues and many other matters. They were guided by what was best for our Temple and our Congregation. I have been trying to follow their examples.

I personally want to thank all my predecessors for the great job they did in the past and are still doing today. Thank you to Susan Adelman, David Goldberg, David Brock, David Desmon, Stuart Lerman, Wendee Lorbeer, Jonathan Rodwin, Kenneth Rogers, Richard Romer, Howard Rosenhoch, Laurence Rubin, Orrin Tobbe, Warren Clark, miriam treger honig, Julie Weinberg and Kenneth Polk. They all still serve on committees and are always available for advice.

Just over a year ago, past president Ralph Halpern passed. I had the opportunity to sit down with Ralph shortly before his death. He shared sage advice.

There are many other leaders whom we all miss that I have known over the years and are great examples of how to lead. They all cared deeply for us and our Temple. In case you have not noticed, there are photographs of most of our Presidents in the lobby at 805 Delaware. I have the honor of being added to their number.

Join us on February 13 and at the many Temple and community celebrations that are scheduled. As I always say - I hope to hear from you and to see you soon.

Thank you and celebrate Presidents Day.

Letter from the Rabbi

Schmoozing Our Way Forward

There is an old Jewish joke about why we pray: "Mort comes to talk to God and I come to talk to Mort." It is funny because it is true. Judaism has always been relational. As Dr. Ron Wolfson teaches in Relational Judaism, the Jewish future is built through real relationships inside our community and beyond it.

Temple Beth Zion is in an unfolding transformation as the creation of the Jewish Museum of Buffalo allows us to refocus on Jewish life in the present and future while freeing resources to sustain Religious School and occasional services in the suburbs. This enables the Cantor, Religious School Director, and me to focus on exceptional learning, services, and meaningful relationships.

Our synagogue's future depends as much on relationships outside the Jewish community as within it. TBZ's mission remains distinct from the Museum in its religiousness. In the past month, we connected through MLK services with Christian African American neighbors, especially Love Alive Fellowship Church, partnered with Jewish Family Services and the Ralph C. Wilson Foundation to bring caregiver resources to Western New York, and joined with Hillel of Buffalo for Shabbat Shirah.

I am midway through my fourth year at Temple Beth Zion. The Alban Institute teaches that rabbis are still considered new until five years in a community. I have encountered many assumptions about TBZ's past and future. Those stories matter, but they are history.

I love our temple. With your support through money, expertise, or time, you can help secure a future that benefits the entire Western New York Jewish and non Jewish community. TBZ has a financially sustainable future, and the coming months will allow us to elevate the quality of your experience as part of this sacred community.

My first priority is to be your rabbi. When I was a student in Cincinnati, a congregant once said to me at her father's unveiling, "What makes a rabbi is being there for people in moments like this." I carry those words with me. In Judaism, we do not measure success by counting, but by the quality of our relationships and the depth of the experiences we create together. As we continue to devote ourselves to Temple Beth Zion, may TBZ eternally enrich our lives.

Great Programming Ahead

As we begin a new year, I am excited to share the many wonderful programs planned for the coming months. I hope each of you will take the opportunity to participate in some of the exciting experiences we have in store for our community.

On February 1, we will host a community-wide Tu Bishvat Seder at the Broder Center from 11 a.m.-noon. Our Religious School students will be participating, and we warmly invite parents to join their children. The entire congregation—and friends of TBZ—are also welcome to attend. Reservations can be made at bit.ly/TuBiShvat2026.

On February 5, the 2026 Stained Glass Series begins with Cantor Susie and Jay Dref, bringing the sounds of Broadway to the Sanctuary at 7:30 p.m.

We kick off March with our Purim celebrations on March 1 at the Broder Center. Festivities begin at 10 a.m. with the TBZ Kids Purim Production, followed by the Community-Wide Purim Carnival at the Benderson Building of the JCC starting at 11 a.m., where our children will perform a second time. Carnival planning is still underway, and more details will be shared soon.

TBZ Purim festivities continue on March 2 with our adult Purim Players presenting "The Wizard of Purim." A festive dinner begins at 5:30 p.m. (reservations required at bit.ly/PurimDinner2026), followed by a Megillah reading at 6:30 p.m., the spiel, and dessert.

On March 29, we will hold a school-wide Passover Seder at the Broder Center. We invite you to join our Religious School as we celebrate together. Volunteers are needed to help with set-up, food preparation, and clean-up. Please contact me if you are interested in lending a hand.

Many more programs are planned in the coming months. Information will be shared on the TBZ website, in our Bulletin, through weekly congregational emails, and in the weekly email I send out. I hope you and your family will join us as we continue working together to make our TBZ community the very best it can be.

If we have not yet met, please be sure to find me at one of these events and introduce yourself. As always, I encourage you to come and visit our Religious School and experience firsthand the ruach that fills our Sunday mornings.

L'Shalom,
Susan Goldberg

Stained Glass Concert February 5

"Let's Duet" features songs with Cantor Susie and tenor Jay Dref

Temple Beth Zion's much-loved Stained Glass Concert Series returns Thursday, February 5 at 7:30 p.m. with "Let's Duet," a stellar concert performance by our own Cantor Susan Lewis-Friedman and Buffalo Native crossover tenor Jay Dref, accompanied on piano by well-known Buffalo musician and writer Ken Kaufman.

Jay is a graduate of The Julliard School. He has toured internationally and performed at venues such as New York's Lincoln Center, Los Angeles' Dolby Theatre, and the Ryman Auditorium in Nashville. Jay has also appeared in concert with the Buffalo Philharmonic Orchestra, the Niagara Symphony Orchestra, and the Hilton Head Symphony Orchestra.

For the past five years, Jay has collaborated with World-Renowned Global recording artist and best-selling soprano Sarah Brightman on several concert tours spanning four continents. He will continue to tour with Ms. Brightman throughout this year.

The 2025-2026 Stained Glass Series begins with a delightful evening of the most popular duets Jay and Sarah have done together, but this time featuring Jay and Cantor Susie in our magnificent, sacred 805 Delaware Avenue sanctuary. "When Jay and I got together this summer to sing the prayers, it was very simpatico," said Cantor Susie. "We meshed together musically right away, and it felt like magic was happening. We plan to sing Broadway tunes, classical songs and some Jewish music as well," she added.

The program of "Duets" will include the songs The Prayer, All I Ask of You from PHANTOM OF THE OPERA, You Matter to Me from WAITRESS, A Million Dreams or Rewrite the Stars from GREATEST SHOWMAN, Come What May from MOULIN ROUGE, Our Children from RAGTIME, Tonight/Somewhere/One Hand, One Heart medley from WEST SIDE STORY, I Have Dreamed from THE KING AND I, Falling Slowly from ONCE, As Long As You're Mine from WICKED and more.

The Series continues Sunday, March 29 with the World Premiere of The Valley of Silence: Search for Six Million, and Sunday, May 17 with Sweet Singers of Buffalo.

Experience the magic of music in our sacred space. Purchase your tickets today! Suggested Contribution: $18 Individuals, $36 Families. The pay what you wish admission allows the Stained Glass Series to remain accessible to all community members. All contributions have a lasting impact on our public programming, helping us to celebrate our heritage through our space and our music.

Tickets and information are available at www.tbz.org/stainedglass.

TBZ Receives One-Time Security Grant

TBZ is pleased to announce that it recently received a one-time security grant of $8,300. These funds come through the Jewish Federations of North America's Emergency Security Fund, generously supported by the Tepper Foundation, and are matched dollar-for-dollar by the Buffalo Jewish Federation.

Funds are a partner grant that helps offset the cost of the off-duty officers who guard our Shabbat services, and programs that serve, or include, families with young children. TBZ is grateful to all three partners for this generous, and important, funding.

Apartment for Rent

The temple has just completed the renovation of a sunny two-bedroom apartment on the Delaware site. Located off Linwood, the unit is fully renovated, has window treatments, in-suite laundry and one parking spot. The monthly rental is $2,300 including utilities, and it is available now.

If you are interested or know of someone who is interested, please email apartment@tbz.org to express interest and acquire a rental form.

Mazel Tov!

To Allison & Alexander Mazurek on the birth of their daughter, Avery Faye. Avery's grandparents are Frank*(z'l)* & Debby Pieri and Harry Mazurek & Susan Shilcrat. Aaron Pieri is Avery's proud uncle.

To Anna Marie Richmond, who has been named the recipient of the Pro Bono Award from the United States District Court for the Western District of New York (WDNY). Anna Marie is a Buffalo solo practitioner whose work focuses on protecting her clients' civil and constitutional rights. This well-deserved honor recognizes her steadfast commitment to serving individuals and her dedication to ensuring access to justice.

Honorable Menschen

The Judaica Shop, along with Sisterhood, continues to support the Jewish Soldiers Project. This nonprofit organization was founded in 2007 by a workers compensation judge in Rochester, New York to serve Jewish service members worldwide. This year, Susan Bruckheimer and Dee Block coordinated a donation of 100 boxes of Chanukah candles. More candles were shining brightly this past Chanukah because of the donation!

JEWISH MUSEUM OF BUFFALO

The Jewish community of Niagara Falls, New York, holds a rich and enduring history dating back to the mid-nineteenth century. Like many American cities along key transportation routes, Niagara Falls attracted Jewish immigrants who established thriving businesses and built community institutions crucial to their religious and social lives. The community was served primarily by four synagogues, of which two synagogues served until recently: Temple Beth Israel (Conservative, founded in 1898, disbanded in 2012) and Temple Beth El (Reform, held services in the 1860s, adopted reform style worship in the 1880s, formally incorporated in 1905, and celebrated its last high holiday services in 2025).

Ellen Franke, who has served as Rabbi of Temple Beth El, was nice enough to show me around Niagara Falls this Fall, so that the Jewish Museum of Buffalo, JMB, could document the four Jewish cemeteries in Niagara County, photograph important Jewish sites, and document this once vibrant Jewish community.

A favorite stop was in the Old Hebrew Cemetery, adjacent to Oakwood Cemetery in Niagara Falls. The land was purchased for use as a cemetery in 1864 by a group of Jewish settlers. The first burial was that of a fallen Civil War soldier in 1865 named Daniel Cohn. The community is unsure of how many actual graves are on the site, but some records show that up to 30 plots were purchased by early Jewish settlers from the region. Daniel Cohn did not have a headstone. Leaders of Temple Beth El located the grave and put in place a headstone. In 2019, relatives came from Ohio to an unveiling with military honors, Taps, and the presentation of the flag.

As the Niagara Falls Jewish population declined, the challenge of preserving communal assets grew. The story of their community now continues through the Jewish Museum of Buffalo. The Museum is a repository for the history of Jewish life throughout Western New York, and it holds artifacts from the Niagara Falls community, including a Torah scroll from Temple Beth El. As visitors engage with the Torah scroll, the memory of those who read and learned from this scroll continues. This sacred scroll represents the literal continuity of Jewish tradition. By being housed in the JMB, the Torah serves to educate visitors about the Jews of Niagara Falls, the families who founded Temple Beth El and Temple Beth Israel, the Jews who built their lives, and contributed to the city, and remain visible, honored, and accessible for future generations.
